St. Joseph County – The St. Joseph County Prosecutor's office has filed a Criminal Information for Theft, a class D felony, against Raymond Daniel Holycross. Holycross, 29, allegedly sold a Nikon camera and lenses, which belonged to Teresa Bridegroom. Bridegroom reported that her boyfriend, who she identified as "Ray Parris", had stolen and pawned her camera.

Holycross remains in custody at the St. Joseph County Jail and is scheduled to be arraigned on Friday, February 22, 2013. Bond is set at $10,000 Corporate surety or $1,000 cash. The Criminal Information and Probable Cause Affidavit are attached to this press release.

The Glock, model 19, 9mm handgun recovered from Mr. Holycross is the same weapon which is the subject of a Criminal Information for Theft, a class D felony, filed in Howard County on October 9, 2012.

Please be advised that the charges filed against the defendant are merely accusations and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
